

HAVING YOUR OWN BREATHING SPACE

There are those who do not understand the concept of personal space. There are times where you will be in cramped space with strangers and feel claustrophobic. Times like those we may be some of the most uncomfortable moments we have to endure.

When you buy your own Personal Air Purifier, you can enjoy clean fresh air to breathe in your own breathing zone. While it may not sound special, it has been acknowledged and validated by universities through research. Unlike regular pure air purifiers, this is a convenient, on the go item that has been given four patents. It is widely recognized and proven to be effective.

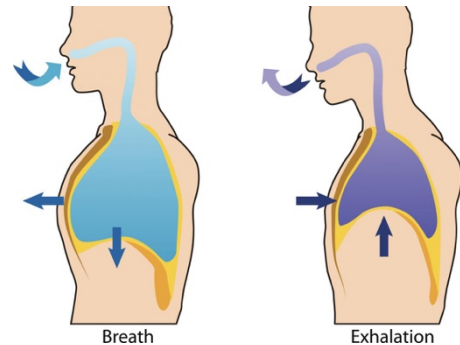

This can be best used for:

- Air Travel
- Movie Theaters
- Waiting Rooms
- Any Confined Spaces Where People Congregate

Although it may look odd to wear, it is convenient and when your uncomfortable and want air to breathe to relax yourself in a stressful situation, what other people think will not matter.

The Personal Air Purifier can also be helpful to those who already experience some type of breathing problems on their own. One reviewer reported that while she finally came home after heart surgery, she found herself having difficulties relying on an oxygen tank to sustain her. However, when she purchased her own air purifier she noticed a difference within weeks.

Since this product relies on batteries, it is easy to maintain and it lasts up to 60 hours at a time. It may seem expensive but this product has been shown to improve the quality of health and comfort.

We may not be able to control the settings around us but we can change our comfort level. If you purchase the Personal Air Purifier, then will see drastic changes that can improve your physical and mental well-being. For those that struggle with claustrophobia will find this product to be quite useful. Since claustrophobia is more associated with being in small spaces, being able to have your own Personal Air Purifier can be beneficial to those who practice calming breathing exercises.

Considering all the benefits to this product, it would behoove anyone to purchase it. The price may look intimidating to some, but the cost benefit of health and comfort cannot compare.
